

Aniya Cardell – BIO

Aniya Cardell is a talented 22-year-old striving to bring the youth of today to God. Her passion for the Lord and her love for children is what drives her to excel as a JosiahKids team member. Aniya started dancing at a very young age. She was trained in multiple genres of dance from Alvin Ailey and Atlanta ballet. This led to her being a part of many productions throughout her childhood to teenage years. In high school Aniya became a thespian. She worked with a talent agency for artist development and is now a recording artist. Aniya also worked as a brand ambassador for a nonprofit outreaching to kids to promote tobacco free living . Aniya plans to use her knowledge and creativity to pour into the youth to teach them how to express themselves through the arts to glorify God. Aniya's dream is continuing to minister to the younger generation through her bible Knowledge and music. She plans to become a Christian R&B/Hip Hop artist to mix both her passions for God and music together..
