

The Buford Harvest Committee Member Recruitment

What is JosiahKids?

JosiahKids is a nontraditional young leadership school committed to the mission of raising the next generation of service-minded leaders. From September through May, on the first and third Saturdays of the month, JosiahKids hosts a myriad of educational classes and events that include quality guest speakers, community service events, panel discussions, educational workshops, and leadership classes in a faith-based environment for young people between the ages of seven and seventeen.

What is the opportunity?

The Buford Harvest Committee is a standing committee responsible for the biggest outreach event of the organization. The charge of The Buford Harvest is to strengthen and unify our communities, and to celebrate, empower, and inspire the next generation of service-minded leaders. This committee is responsible for helping to ensure that our biggest outreach event of the year is executed successfully with excellence. The core functions of the committee are to:

- ❖ initiate and oversee the nomination process from students from all around the globe
- ❖ select a suitable keynote speaker for the annual award ceremony
- ❖ choose diverse award judges from various geographies, careers, and nationalities
- ❖ activate an action plan to advertise the award ceremony
- ❖ ensure the organization has a viable venue to host the event
- ❖ help the organization line up performers of various ethnic and cultural expressions
- ❖ assist the organization with securing corporate sponsors for The Buford Harvest
- ❖ provide strategic insights on planning a cost-effective global broadcast
- ❖ adequately staff appropriate workstreams to manage various aspects of the event
- ❖ ensure the board receives important updates on the committees work and progress
- ❖ establish and review an annual budget for The Harvest
- ❖ recommend caterers, AV needs, vendors, and sustain the committee itself
