Marlene Maina, MDiv.

Let's Go Deeper In The Word!

For the first time ever, our discipleship program will be offered off-site, on a weekly basis, with registration open to the community. This class will be facilitated by Marlene Maina. Marlene is a devoted follower of Christ, and Bible teacher who holds a Bachelor of Arts in Biblical Education, a Master of Divinity, and a Master of Leadership degree from Luther Rice College and Seminary. Marlene and her husband Newton are the founders of JosiahKids Inc., a youth development nonprofit organization committed to the mission of educating, empowering, and equipping young students and teens in the local community in the areas of faith, leadership, community service, and the arts.

"Character over cleverness, integrity over a good impression, substance over the superficial, eternity over the temporal. This class is for the young person whose heart is earnestly yearning to be fully HIS!"

-Marlene Maina
