

Quinnay Summers | Bio

My name is Quinnay Summers, and I am 21 years old. I was born in New York and raised in Georgia. I played three years of varsity basketball at Peachtree Ridge High School. At the beginning of my senior year, I tore my ACL and meniscus, yet still earned a full basketball scholarship to continue my career at Jarvis Christian College in Hawkins, Texas.

I have a passion for sports and love playing and watching games. When I'm not coaching, I enjoy playing basketball, tossing around the football, or playing a game of baseball with my family.

In the future, I want to become a high school or even a college basketball coach. I possess an entrepreneurial spirit and would also love to open a sports facility for anyone who wants to play, train, or just watch games.
